

Campbell Intermediate Music Tour 2018

The Campbell Grade 10 Music Ensembles will be traveling to Winnipeg, Manitoba to perform at festivals, participate in workshops, and perform at public venues. Performance tours are essential educational elements of the Campbell Music Department. All members of the above ensembles are expected to be part of "the team" on this excursion. This will be a valuable and rewarding experience for all involved.

WHEN:

Thursday, March 22 - Saturday, March 24

HIGHLIGHTS:

Attend a Live Music Performance

Clinics with internationally recognized choral and band clinicians at the University of Brandon

Performances at local schools and public venues in Winnipeg including Daniel McIntyre Collegiate

Guided Tour of the esteemed Canadian Museum for Human Rights

TRANSPORTATION

We are planning to travel by Moose Mountain Coach Buses to Winnipeg

ACCOMMODATION

We will be staying at a local hotel in Winnipeg

FOOD:

The hotel will provide breakfast. Hot and cold items are available. Group suppers will be included in the overall cost. Students will be responsible for all lunches and for food while enroute to and from Winnipeg on the buses.

COST:

The total cost for this trip including accommodation, sightseeing activities, breakfast and group suppers will be $225/student after the CAMPA subsidy. Note that CAMPA is providing a substantial subsidy to lower the tour fees for all participating students.

FUNDRAISING

In order to provide this opportunity and keep costs down for individual students, it is important that every member of the Campbell Music Family support the CAMPA group and individual fundraisers in some way. Please check for fundraising events posted on the CAMPA website: campa.ca.

BINGO'S

Working at CAMPA bingos is a great individual fundraiser that benefits every Campbell Music family directly. Please contact the CAMPA Bingo Coordinator, Maureen Pennington, at maupennington@gmail.com if you are interested in earning money at upcoming bingos! Each person earns $50 toward their TRP fundraising account. Therefore, if you have 4 people working one bingo for you, you can earn $200 toward your fundraising account in one bingo evening! If you currently have funds in your family's TRP account, you will have received a statement during September 2017. All bingos are held at Centennial Bingo (2311 2nd Avenue) and the upcoming bingo dates are listed below. Additional dates will become available throughout the year.

September 30 – 5:00pm	November 12 – 5:00pm
October 18 – 5:30pm	November 20 – 5:30pm
October 29 – 5:00pm

MEDICAL/DIETARY RESTRICTION INFORMATION

The Tour Permission form asks for any information regarding medical and/or dietary concerns. Please ensure that you complete this information in full.

ITINERARY

A detailed itinerary will be provided to students prior to the trip. This itinerary will include specific information about the activities and performances planned for each day plus contact for the parents. Specific information regarding what to bring and behavioral expectations will also be outlined at that time. Students will be expected to follow their itinerary very carefully!
